The Episcopal church is undergoing repairs and the cross on the tower is to be regilded.

The Sunbeams of the Baptist church will give a bazaar and dinner in the Flack building next Saturday, Dec. 9th.

Capt. Whitlow, of Hotel Latham, is confined by having three of his toes mashed while handling a box last week.

The Evansville jail is still being guarded because of threats against Lee Williams, a negro accused of assaulting Mrs. Wm. Griener.

Weakened systems need a mature, wholesome, mellow liquor—that's I. W. HARPER Whiskey—the kind your grandfather used. Sold by W. R. Long, Hopkinsville, Ky.

"Alvin Joslin" was played Saturday night to a small house. It was a good show but the bad night and inclement weather cut the attendance down very low.

BAPTIZING

Main and Virginia Street Baptists Receive Large Accessions.

One of the largest baptizings for many years occurred at the old mill pond, west of the North Main bridge, last Sunday. Revivals have been in progress at the Main and Virginia street colored Baptist churches for two weeks past. Rev. B. J. Garrett is pastor of the Main street church and Rev. E. Williams is pastor of the Virginia street church. The preaching has been done by the pastors, and as a result of their labors they have had large additions. There were 60 persons baptized Sunday, 30 going into each church. Several hundred people were present.

THERMOMETER THIEF

Makes Way With a Valuable One From R. C. Hardwick's Store.

When Mr. Myers, prescription clerk at Hardwick's, went to the front door yesterday morning to see how cold the weather was, he was surprised to find that the thermometer had been stolen. It was a valuable one, costing $35. Mr. Myers says he has no idea of when the theft occurred, as he had not looked at it for some time.

THE GIDEONS

To Hold Meeting First Week in January.

Messrs. W. S. Davison and Ross Rogers, the local committee of arrangements for the devotional services during the first week in January, are doing everything necessary for a successful meeting. Mr. Charles Palmer will be the speaker for five nights, and it is hoped that great good will result.

EARLYWINE EULOGIZES DECEASED ELKS

Memorial Exercises Largely Attended Sunday Afternoon.

CHOICE MUSIC HEARD.

Bluegrass Orator Charms All With His Graces as a Speaker.

The opera house was crowded Sunday afternoon, floor and gallery, until standing room was not to be had, when the Hopkinsville Elks held their annual memorial exercises.

The following program was carried out:

Piano Voluntary.....Mrs. Jas. H. Anderson.

Ceremonies.....Hopkinsville Lodge No. 545.

Vocal Solo, "Sleeping in God's Acre".....Miss Walker Williams.

Opening Ceremonies.....Hopkinsville Lodge No. 545.

Invocation.....E. H. Bull.

Instrumental selection, flute and violin.....Dr. R. F. McDaniel and Mr. Fritz Fallenstein.

Vocal Solo, "Beautiful City".....Mr. Guy Starling.

Eulogy.....The Hon. J. W. Earlywine, Paris, Ky., Lodge No. 373.

Solo.....(a) Invocation.....D'Hardelet.

(b) "O, Dry Those Tears" Del Riego.....Miss Tommie Lyle Waller.

Closing Exercises.....Hopkinsville Lodge No. 545.

Benediction.....

The eulogy of Mr. Earlywine, the orator of the occasion, was a rare piece of word painting. His beautiful sentiments were eloquently conceived, expressed in gracefully rounded periods and in words so appropriate, so touching and so well delivered that all who heard his speech were charmed with his effort. He praised the order of Elks, their silent work of charity and benevolence and their love for departed members. He referred feelingly to the five members who have entered "The Eternal City."

Mr. Earlywine is a young man of undoubted ability and of decided promise. His ability as an orator is sure to be recognized wherever he delivers an address.

COLDEST YET.

Mercury Dropped to 17 Degrees Sunday Night.

Sunday was a cold day and people generally stayed within doors. The attendance at the different churches in the morning was pretty good, but Sunday night the mercury dropped several degrees, keeping many regular attendants at home.

Yesterday morning was the coldest of the season, Weather Clerk Randle reporting the mercury as having registered 17 degrees above zero.
